

Comparison/Contrast

Example phrases of comparison:

Just as Author A advocates for _____, Author B also expresses the same opinion when he states_____.

Both Author A and Author B compare/express/enhance_____.

Author B who, like Author A, expresses/illustrates/demonstrates _____, also explains that _____.

Just as Author A and B both agree that _____, both authors also portray how _____.

Example phrases of contrast:

Unlike Author A who argues _____, Author B advocates that_____.

Despite what Author B says about _____, Author A expresses the opposing opinion when he/she states_____.

Even though Author B makes a good point when he/she states that _____, Author A challenges this statement by arguing how _____.

Mixture of Compare/Contrast:

Even though Author A and B agree that _____, Author B has a slightly different view than Author A when Author B says how _____.

While Author B and A both express an understanding of _____, Author B alone argues that _____.

Note:

These templates can be used for more than just when comparing two authors. You can adjust some of the wording and use these template examples as foundations for other comparison/contrast topics such as ideas, philosophies, economical concepts, and so on.